BENJAMIN BISHOP OF BANGOR IS DEAD

Benjamin Bishop, one of the oldest residents of the Bangor district, passed away Saturday night at shortly before midnight at a local hospital, at the age of 76 years. Mr. Bishop was a native of Indiana. He is survived by two sons, Fred Bishop of Bangor, and George Bishop of Placer county. Also the following step-children: Mrs. Emma Sligar, Gridley; Mrs. Mary Henneger, San Francisco; Bird Will, Banor.

Mr. Bishop came to California in 1862, settling first on the Ord ranch near Gridley. After staying there a short time, he moved to Mendocino county, where he remained seven years, returning then to Butte county, and settling at Bangor, where he engaged in stock raising. He was well known, a man of admirable character and possessed of a host of friends.

Funeral services will be held at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning at Bangor. Interment will be in the Bangor cemetery.

BANGOR WATER USERS COMPLAIN OF COMPANY

SAN FRANCISCO, June 14.—E. J. Costello, a rancher of Bangor, has filed with the State Railroad Commission a complaint signed also by some sixteen residents of Oroville and Bangor, against the Los Verjels Land & Water Company, which supplies their ranches with water, asking the commission to compel the company to serve them with sufficient water for the upkeep of their property.

The complaint says that the company does not shut the gates of its reservoirs at the proper time, which results in a shortage of water; that the pipe line of the company across Glenn creek is too small; that the company has no system, rules or regulations and no man to look after the water supply, the water users taking water whenever they want it, irrespective of others.

The plaintiffs want the commission to order the company to get water from other companies, so as to have an adequate supply.

Proceed With Irrigation District Plan at Bangor

OROVILLE, June 24.—At a meeting attended by nearly two hundred landowners in the proposed Wyandotte and Bangor Irrigation District, the report by Engineers Kluegel and Grunsky was submitted by the committee who have been active for some two years in determining what could be done toward getting more land under irrigation.

A resolution presented by Rodney Tyler was adopted, authorizing the chairman, E. P. Hilborn, to name a committee of twelve members, all to be landowners in the proposed district, whose duty it is to proceed further with the examination of the report and interview landowners as to their intention to join in the formation of a district, and further, after finding out if a district is feasible at this time, to call meetings of the landowners and proceed with the formation of the district.

C. M. Burket and George Bille of Paradise were present at the meeting, and both gave straightforward talks on the mistakes that had been made in the formation of the Paradise Irrigation District, but declared that even if the Paradise system had cost twice what it has, it would still be worth while.

Very little opposition developed at the meeting, for Chairman Hilborn made it plain that so far the committees' work had been purely of a tentative character, finding out what could be done, and that the actual attempt to form a district would devolve on the succeeding committee, which was not yet named.

He also made it plain that the recommendation of his committee was that wherever possible opposing landowners' holdings were to be left out of any district that might be formed.

Lorraine Line Is Pierced

Thirteen Million Register Butte Exceeds Estimates

3800 of This County's Man- hood Listed for Serv- ice in Great War

WASHINGTON, Sept. 12.—Thirteen million men, probably more, the force from which will come reserves to win the war, were registered today in the second greatest mobilization of nation's manpower.

As these men were moving in every city, town and hamlet over the country to add their names to the roll of the eleven million who had registered before, the nation's fighting arm overseas was hurling itself against the enemy in the first distinctly American operation on the western front.

While over a million khaki-clad soldiers under the direct command of General Pershing battled their way through the rain soaked battlefields on the Lorraine sector yesterday, invading German lines for a distance of five miles, Butte county patriots between the new registration ages walked through pelting rain and placed their names on record for military service.

Registration was a democratic downpour. From the farms, stores, offices and factories came laborers, ranchers, clerks, merchants, lawyers, doctors, mechanics and artisans, all willing and anxious that their names should be listed on the country's new honor roll of registrants.

The heaviest registration was in Chico, where 1750 were listed, occurring during the early hours of the day, and the Municipal Building corridors were lined with men by 10 o'clock, awaiting their turn to be counted on for service.

In all districts except Oroville the registration outnumbered the estimate placed by Secretary C. H. Deuel and Adj. Gen. J. J. Borree, who had estimated the registration at 3000.

Chico, Oroville, Gridley, Biggs, Paradise and Bangor registered a total of 3236 men. The estimated total in unreported precincts was 600, giving Butte county more than 3800 men listed for military service under the manpower act.

While the English speaking registrants were prompt in all their answers to registration clerks, to the Japanese of Chico goes the credit for registering themselves in a manner that saved the clerks much time.

Each Japanese registrant presented a large sheet of paper, upon which were written all questions contained in the registration card in English and Japanese. Each Jap presented his paper to the registration clerk, who copied the answers on a registration card, and then the registrant simply signed his name to the card.

John Wainwright of Sacramento, forty-one years old, who walked thirty miles through the rain to register, went insane ten minutes after leaving the Municipal Building, and is now at the city prison. Wainwright told Jailer John Boyle that the spirits were after him and that he feared they would overtake him.

The first noticeable attempt at evasion of registration occurred last night at the Municipal Building, when eight Hindus appeared and claimed that they were all forty-seven years old, and all born on Tuesday. Questioned closely by Chief Registrar Ira R. Morrison, they admitted possible mistakes in their ages and were all registered as under forty-six.

The task of selecting the men between nineteen and twenty and thirty-two and thirty-six, who will go in the first calls, and mailing questionnaires to them, will be commenced within the next fifteen days by local boards. Men registered were reminded in a statement issued from exemption headquarters last night that their first duty is over and they now need only await notice from the board.

"No newly registered man need call at the offices of the local board within the next fifteen days unless he desires to change his address, or in case of death his relatives should notify the board. Questionnaires will be mailed to those first in order of selection at the proper time," said a statement issued by the board.

No effort will be made today to trace men who have not registered, and those between the stated ages who for any reason overlooked registering yesterday are invited to call at headquarters of the local board today and register, thereby saving themselves the humiliation of arrest and imprisonment as draft evaders.

Butte's First Guava Crop Being Harvested

Butte county's first guava crop has now been harvested, according to P. H. Ronnsse of Bangor.

A large number of guave plants were planted some time ago at Sunny Slope near Bangor, in order to demonstrate the adaptibility of that section for guava growing. Both in the yield and the quality of the fruit, the experiment has been a complete success. Planting on a larger and more extensive scale is now being contemplated.

The guava is a semi-tropical fruit that grows in bush form. The bush comes into bearing three years after planting. The fruit tastes something like the strawberry, and is used in making a very high grade and expensive jelly.

C. F. Hinman, government pomologist, who was at Sunny Slope last month, declared the fruit to be of superlative quality and predicted the development of guava culture upon a commercial scale there.

Two Babes Burned to Death at Bangor

Two babies, six months and two years old, children of Mrs. Thomas Westgell of Gridley, were burned to death early today in a fire that destroyed the residence of Mrs. M. L. Gooch near Bangor.

Mrs. Westgell, Mrs. Gooch and the latter's daughter Grace suffered burns, but will recover. The daughter was burned in an effort to rescue the babies. The three women were taken to a hospital at Oroville.

They and the babies were the only ones in the house. All were asleep on the second floor of the residence. They were awakened by the crash of falling glass. The cause of the fire has not been determined.

AGE WEARY KILLS SELF IN HILLS

Butte County Pioneer Found by Daughter With His Throat Cut

Mrs. Emma Bevan, well known resident of Bangor, was horrified yesterday when she entered one of the bedrooms at her home and found her aged father lying on the floor with his throat cut. An open razor lying closed to his side, with the blade bared, told the story of the tragedy.

Mr. Kingdon, who was 79 years of age, had been despondent for some time because of the condition of his health. He had been failing rapidly, so decided to end it all by ending his own life.

The deceased is one of the best known residents of this county, having come to Butte county in the early days, when he engaged in mining. On his arrival in California the deceased settled in Sierra county. Twenty-seven years ago he moved to Bangor, and seven years later to Honcut, where he resided, up to the time of his death.

Kingdon is survived by three sons, W. H. Kingdon and J. M. Kingdon of Honcut and Arthur A. Kingdon of Palermo, and two daughters, Mrs. Emma Bevans and Mrs. Mary E. Hunter, both of Bangor.

BANGOR FARMERS WANT HUNTERS TO KILL DEER

At a most enthusiastic meeting of the Bangor Farm Center Wednesday it was decided what projects to undertake for this year's work in that district. The question of getting rid of the deer that are eating the small orchard trees was declared to be one of the most serious. Hunters are invited to come in and help clear the district of deer.

R. P. McCune, secretary of the Wyandotte Center, attended the meeting and told the Bangor folk what is being done by the Farm Center at Wyandotte, and urged them to undertake a year's active work. Farm Advisor Drobish talked on the subject of Farm Bureau, the Farmers' Big Progressive Organization, and the Relation of the Farm Advisor to the Farm Bureau. L. E. Cole was unanimously elected director of the center for the ensuing year.

Among other subjects that were suggested as possible projects were: Gopher control, red spider control, community spraying, marketing lemons, electric lights, water, and pruning demonstrations. The next meeting of the Farm Center is to be given over to consideration of the bond election for good roads.

IRON ORE DEPOSIT NEAR BANGOR TO BE MINED

A ledge of iron ore sixty feet wide which has hitherto been considered to have no practical value, is likely to form the nucleus of a big industry in Butte county in the near future.

The ore is situated about one and a half miles from Bangor, and is owned by J. C. Turner. D. E. Young, San Francisco chemist, has taken an option on it, claiming that when it is mined and treated it will form an ingredient in the manufacture of paint, particularly white lead. Young will commence mining the ore as soon as the necessary equipment can be placed on the ground.

The hand of the federal prohibition enforcement department fell at Bangor, Butte county, yesterday, when Postmaster Henry Conger and L. M. Rose, a rancher, were taken into custody. The men were taken to Marysville and arraigned before United States Commissioner J. E. Ebert. Their preliminary examinations were set for May 18 and each admitted to bail in the amount of $500.

Bybee Finds Home for Two Orphans Deserted by Mother When Father Dies

Two girls, made orphans by the death of their father and desertion of their mother, have found a new home in Chico, through the efforts of Probation Officer E. S. Bybee. The children have been under the wing of the juvenile court since their uncle, a Bangor laborer, decided that he could not afford to keep the children in addition to his own large family.

Bybee was impressed with the excellent conduct of the orphans and he has interested a Chico family in the case and the youngsters now have a home.

According to Bybee, the mother deserted the children within two weeks after their father died at Bangor and they were then taken in charge by their uncle, who has found it impossible to support them under the present living conditions.

BANGOR TO HAVE ELECTRIC LIGHTS IN HOMES

Bangor will have electric lights by Christmas, according to an arrangement made by the residents of Bangor and representatives of the Pacific Gas and Electric Company. The offer of the Pacific Gas and Electric Company to install the transformer and wire if the residents would install the poles and cross arms and agree to use the power, was accepted. A committee was appointed from the Farm Center to arrange to secure poles and cross arms at once.

In anticipation of the coming of electric power, a demonstration of proper methods of wiring homes will be made at Bangor sometime during the middle of November by the University Extension Service. On the day following the wiring demonstration, a demonstration on the installation of running water in homes will also be made at Bangor.

Everyone benefits by the Activities of this Company

EVERYONE residing in "Superior" California has benefited either directly or indirectly by the activities of this Company.

When over 8000 people are given employment—when over a million dollars a month is put into circulation—the butcher, baker and every home maker feels the prosperity created by such a payroll.

But the enterprise of the P G and E has benefited this section in other far reaching ways. Take for example, the Pit River development work:

The great amount of power ultimately to be generated in this one district will be equivalent to the work of five million laborers a day. This in itself will insure the industrial and agricultural growth for years to come.

And think of this: For every one horsepower in power plant development, on the average of 12 acres of unproductive land worth $300 may have four horsepower in motors for irrigation and general use applied to them. Such land then usually produces $1000 in new crops each year and becomes worth approximately $2400.

To industry it means that every time 25 horsepower is harnessed in the mountains, an average of a factory and a half is started involving a capital investment of almost $150,000, providing work for about 34 more people who can produce over $200,000 in new commodities.

AT THE PRESENT TIME this Company has developed power in excess of the immediate demand. While the work of developing power is progressing every effort must be directed to creating more uses for power, in order that the best interests of the community will be served.

Alleged Burglar to Be Defendant in Civil Suit

Pat Murphy, alleged leader in many bold robberies in the Sacramento valley, who is being held at Oroville, along with other charges placed against him, must face a civil suit for recovery of the value of goods alleged stolen from a store at Bangor.

The plaintiff, A. D. Hudspeth, proprietor of the store at Bangor, claims that Murphy burglarized his place several times. He has identified some of the stolen goods but the greater part is missing and has not been produced.

Hudspeth, who is a brother of Postmaster Ben F. Hudspeth, brought suit Monday in the superior court after a conference with District Attorney William E. Rothe, who advised him in his present course. Rothe states that the law holds a man liable for his actions whether they are criminal or civil. Two youths arrested with Murphy have confessed to the operations of the gang and it is maintained that their testimony could be used in a civil suit.

Murphy has an automobile and other personal property which could be attached should he be convicted on the criminal charge.

BEDELL RANCH,
BANGOR, SOLD TO SOUTHERNER

By NELLIE M. TIMMONS

BANGOR, Feb. 19.—(Special)—
A sale consummated in the Bangor district last week was one whereby the ranch belonging to Mrs. Sadie M. Bedell was turned over to Marco Aldacosia of Los Angeles, as new owner.

The Bedell ranch consisted of about 240 acres, two acres in peaches, several acres of very old and scattered but heavily bearing fig trees, and the home and home grounds, while the rest is grazing land.

Aldacosia has purchased a band of 34 pure bred Aberdeen-Angus cattle (pure black in color) and intends to range these in winter on the property newly acquired. Aldacosia is also owner of the old Eagleville townsite above Strawberry Valley. Extensive improvements are planned for the old Bedell property.

BANGOR, Feb. 19.—(Special)—

After an absence of many years from the Bangor region, two brothers, who were born and reared in the Sunny Slope Colony, returned to spend the week-end visiting with old friends. They were Harold Sampson, of Burlingame, and Carl Sampson, of San Francisco. They left the home here Twenty-one years ago and each has succeeded in his particular line of work. Harold Sampson is a professional golfer, and Carl Sampson is co-owner in the Sampson and Morgan Co. wholesale druggists of San Francisco. During their stay the Messers Sampson were house guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Wieland.

125 AVOCADOES
SOLD TO H. C.
TURNER, BANGOR

BANGOR, Feb. 19.—(Special)—

Mrs. P. J. Ronsse has sold 125 avocado trees to Henry C. Turner. Turner has approximately 300 trees already planted and doing well. These trees are two years old. With the additional 125 Turner will have an orchard of considerable size. His trees are planted on the old Turner ranch near town. Ed Nieland is planting a large acreage of potatoes and has Bird Will plowing with his tractor, preparing the ground.

MRS. ALICE REED shipped a consignment of turkey gobblers to the bay region on Wednesday.

Many Bangor folks are busy at this time preparing family gardens for planting.
