DIGGER HOSPITALITY.—The Marysville Herald says that a party of Neal's Indians accepted an invitation a few days since to visit a body of the Concows, on the west branch of Feather river, in Butte county, and while regaling themselves with the chemuck presented them by their hosts, a fight ensued, and three of the guests were decapitated. This, it seems, was a modest attempt on the part of the Concows, to exercise the lex talionis, and square accounts with their guests, who, on some former occasion, paid them a similar compliment.

CHINESE vs. INDIANS.—About 9 o'clock last Saturday night some Chinese on the opposite side of the river were attacked by Indians who were camping hard by. The savages seemed desirous to get their rice, and to this the Johns very naturally demurred, as that article was very necessary for subsistence during the scarcity of water. The Indians got the best of it—secured the rice, and pounded two or three Chinamen with clubs. Their countrymen on this side went to their rescue, to the number of 200, armed with guns, pistols, and other weapons. The Indians left in the direction of Nome Lackee.
